BILL SUMMARY:

House Bill 4758 allows a high school student to transfer, with the consent of the school district, to another high school if he or she has been the victim of physical abuse, harassment, or stalking which has resulted in the issuance of a restraining order. The transferring student does not lose eligibility to participate in interscholastic activities at the school to which the student transfers.

EXPLANATION OF IMPACT:

The State Department of Education (SDE) estimates this Bill will have no fiscal impact for that agency. There would be no fiscal impact on Federal and/or other funds.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT IMPACT:

None.

SPECIAL NOTES:

None.
